ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

PROCEEDING ORDERED AGAINST THOMAS C. SHIU

The Commission ordered public administrative proceedings under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 against Thomas C. Shiu, a registered investment adviser who operated the T.M. Hesh Financial Group. T.M. Hesh was an investment pool purportedly organized to use investor funds to purchase "blue chip" stocks listed on the NYSE. The Order alleges that Shiu violated the registration provisions of the Securities Act of 1933 in the offer and sale of unregistered securities in the form of investment contracts, namely interests in an investor pool, T.M. Hesh. The Order further alleges that Shiu violated the antifraud provisions of the Securities Act and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 by failing to purchase the stock he described to investors, by misappropriating client funds for his personal use, by the use of new investor funds to pay previous investors, and by distributing fictitious account statements to lull investors and to conceal his misappropriations.

A hearing will be scheduled to determine whether the allegations are true and, if so, what remedial sanctions, if any, are appropriate. (Rel. IA-1132)

OFFERS OF SETTLEMENT ACCEPTED FROM ROBERT M. WINSTON

In administrative proceedings ordered under Sections 15(b) and 19(h) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, Robert M. Winston submitted an Offer of Settlement which the Commission accepted.

Winston, without admitting or denying the allegations except for admitting his 1978 conviction, consented to the Commission finding that: (a) based upon his attempted sale of $23 million of forged and stolen securities to federal agents, Winston was convicted, after a jury trial, in the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania of transporting securities in interstate commerce, transporting forged securities in interstate commerce, and selling forged and stolen securities; and (b) from about August 6, 1985 to about December 31, 1986, Winston was associated with MCG Portfolio Management Corp., a registered broker-dealer.

Winston consented to a bar from association with any broker, dealer, investment company, investment adviser, or municipal securities dealer. (Rel. 34-25954)

PROCEEDING INSTITUTED AND SANCTIONS IMPOSED AGAINST PROCULO B. BLANDO

The Commission instituted proceedings and imposed remedial sanctions against Proculo B. Blando, president of P.B. Blando & Co., Inc., a registered New York City broker-dealer. Blando consented to the findings and sanctions without admitting or denying the allegations.

The Commission found that Blando wilfully violated Sections 5(a) and 5(c) of the Securities Act of 1933 by selling to members of the public approximately $282,000 of unregistered securities in the form of P&M Blando Corp. promissory notes. The Commission also found that Blando violated Section 17(a) of the Securities Act and Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5 in that he misrepresented to investors the risks attendant to the P&M promissory notes; failed to disclose the use of proceeds; distributed a false advertising circular concerning the P&M offering; and furnished to investors postdated checks, representing principal and interest as payment in full on said notes, while having insufficient funds on deposit in P&M's bank account to cover such checks.

As a result, Blando was suspended from association with any Commission regulated entity for 120 days. (Rel. 33-6792)

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

INJUNCTION ENTERED AGAINST P&M BLANDO CORP. AND PROCULO B. BLANDO

The Commission filed a civil Complaint on July 14 in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of New York charging P&M Blando Corp. and Proculo B. Blando (Blando) with violations of Sections 5(a) and 5(c) of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section

10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5. The Complaint alleged that P&M and Blando sold to members of the public approximately $282,000 of unregistered securities in the form of P&M promissory notes. The Complaint further alleged that they misrepresented to investors the risks attendant to the P&M promissory notes; failed to disclose the use of proceeds from the sale of said notes; distributed a materially misleading and false advertising circular concerning the P&M offering; and furnished to investors postdated checks, representing principal and interest as payment in full on the P&M promissory notes, while having insufficient funds on deposit in P&M's bank account to cover such checks.

Without admitting or denying the allegations, defendants consented to a Final Judgment permanently enjoining them from the above described violations. (SEC v. P&M Blando Corp. and Proculo B. Blando, USDC EDNY, CV-88-2194). (LR-11826)
